

GSA BioSci Fellow Review Rubric

Nominee (Name):

Reviewer (Name):

Date:

(1 → 5, 1=highest indication of meeting criteria; 5=lowest indication of meeting criteria)

Society Wide Criteria

Criterion	Description	Score
I	Current engagement in advancement of gerontology at the time of nomination.
II	Past scholarly achievements in the field of gerontology
III	Involvement in GSA activities
Society-Wide Criteria score

BioSci Specific Criteria

Criterion	Description	Score
I	Either a medical degree or a doctoral degree in gerontology related to experimental biology and conferred by a graduate school or recognized standing.
II	Five years of research experience subsequent to the granting of the doctoral degree.
III	Evidence of meritorious performance in biology or a related field.
IV	Publication of papers (or the equivalent) prior to fellows application, in areas relating to the biology of the aging process.
BioSci Specific Criteria score
TOTAL COMBINED SCORE

If total score is above a x, it is recommended that further discussion occur. However, a reviewer may choose to recommend any nominee regardless of score for further discussion at their discretion.