What are the duties of these positions?

Board of Directors

Authority

The Board of Directors is the legal authority for the Society. The property, affairs, and business of GSA are managed by the Board. The Board is elected by the membership of the Society. The Board delegates the day to day operations and management of the organization to the CEO who has the authority from the Board and who is accountable to the Board, in its oversight capacity, to carry out the organization's vision, mission and strategic goals.

Duties of the Board of Directors

- Effectively govern and lead the organization on behalf of the membership and with accountability to the membership.
- Develop and improve the organization's governing policies and procedures.
- Hire, assist, counsel, oversee and regularly evaluate the CEO.
- Craft the strategic goals, objectives and metrics of success for the organization, with input from GSA staff.
- Maintain, monitor and protect the safety and soundness of the organization and its assets.
- Ensure the proper maintenance of all accounts and financial records of the organization.
- Understand and monitor the performance and results of the organization.
- Help craft and approve an annual budget for the organization.
- Act as active ambassadors to the organization's membership as well as the community as a whole. Speak as one voice once a decision has been made by the Board.
- Retain independent auditors, accountants, and legal or governance counsel as is necessary.
- Ensure the organization acts ethically and with genuine financial integrity.
- Monitor regulations and legal issues pertaining to the organization.
- Sell, dispose of, or mortgage any or all the property of the organization.

Duties of Individual Board Members

- Assist in shaping the vision, mission and strategy of the organization.
- Demonstrate personal and sustained commitment to achieve the vision and mission of the organization.
- Actively engage, contribute, participate and ask questions.
- Keep informed, prepare for and attend board meetings.
- Participate in board development and educational activities.
- Participate in the fundraising process through cultivation, solicitation or stewardship.
- Support and participate in the organization's community outreach efforts and activities.
- Understand and monitor the organization's finances, safety and soundness.
- Carry out its legal duties of care, loyalty and obedience to GSA's mission.
  - A director must carry out his or her duties in good faith, in a manner reasonably believed to be in the best interests of GSA, and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances. (Duty of Care)
  - A director must administer the affairs of the GSA fairly and impartially and without discrimination. (Duty of Loyalty)

- A director must direct the operations of GSA in conformity with Federal, state and local laws and regulations, sound business practices, and the GSA's own policies, procedures, Bylaws and regulations. (Duty of Obedience)
- Serve on committees as opportunities arise, including service on one of the standing committees: Finance; Program, Publications, and Products; and Membership.
- Attend quarterly board meetings, typically one in person in Washington, DC, two online, and one at the Annual Scientific Meeting.
- Attend the Annual Scientific Meeting.
